Rebecca went to the station, but the woman failed to put in an appearance. She then went to Lutherville, where she learned that no such person was known there. Believing that the woman would return in a few days and give her the child, she did not report the matter to the police. Yesterday, however, she decided that the woman had gone for good, and Inspector Boardman, it charge of the Detective Bureau, was asked to assist in locating her.

The police have been unable to find any trace of the woman.

Mr. Richards, who retires from the Government service to be succeeded by R. A. Ballinger, received the following letter from the President today:

letter from the President today:

The White House,
Washington, D. C., March 4.

My dear Commissioner Richards:
I hereby accept your resignation.
Two years ago you told me that you could not stay longer than this date. I told you then how I regretted to have you go. Let me refterate my assurances of my personal regard for you and of appreciation for your long and faithful services. For eight years you have given your best ability to the disinterested services of the Government. I thank you for it on behalf of the Government, and I extend to you my heartiest good wishes for your future.

Sincerely yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The Central Power-House of Publicity!

Nowadays one central "power house" can furnish electricity for running street cars, lighting a city-or for cooking a dinner or running a sewing machine. What was mere "hallucination" about electricity 20 years ago is now "mere matter-of-fact."

Nowadays, also, one central POWER HOUSE OF PUB-LICITY"-such as this newspaper represents and IS-can furnish publicity to one man sufficient to "run a store" or to develop an entire suburban town; and to another enough to rent a furnished room or to sell a second-hand sewing machine

Electricity itself has not a tithe of the uses that are possible to publicity-nor is it any more certain and effective in its workings and results.

Whatever task you have for it, PUBLICITY IS A TIRELESS FORCE THAT NEVER SHIRKS - THAT NEVER PROVES TO BE "TOO EXPENSIVE,"
